If there's a Heisman Trophy for loyalty, this vice-president deserves it, all agree

Th' prisidency is th' highest office in th' gift iv th' people. Th' vice-presidency is th' next highest an' the lowest. It isn't a crime exactly. Ye can't be sint to jail fr it, but it's a kind iv a disgrace. It's like writin' anonymous letters. — from "Dissertations by Mr. Dooley" by Finley Peter Dunne
